

MusicMakers LLC: Private Lessons Terms and Conditions

MusicMakers, LLC will provide private music lessons to students. Although we strive to keep each student with the same teacher for every semester and recognize the importance of consistency, MusicMakers, like any other company, cannot guarantee the same teacher for every semester.

Please be aware that all MusicMakers teachers are under contract with MusicMakers to teach our clients through the MusicMakers program only, and are legally bound to a non-compete and non-solicitation agreement with MusicMakers, LLC. This forbids the teacher from teaching current or recent MusicMakers students or their families/referrals “on the side,” outside
